

Peace Operations Training Institute

BROCHURE TEMPORARILY UNAVAILABLE

15 July 2008

Dear Prospective Student,

Thank you for your interest in the Peace Operations Training Institute. Formerly known as UNITAR POCI, we are dedicated to providing training on UN peace support operations through quality e-learning courses just as we have done under agreement with the United Nations Institute for Training and Research for the past 15 years. While we are no longer affiliated with UNITAR and are operating under a new name, our courses and programmes are the same as we have always provided and are the same as have been welcomed by the United Nations Special Committee on Peacekeeping Operations (C34). We look forward to better serving you with an expanded selection of courses, video enhancements, additional languages, and a new Web site. You will be redirected to our new Web site when it becomes available.

We are committed as always to providing standard, common, universal training for peacekeepers and those in the peace operations field world-wide. Thank you for your interest in the Peace Operations Training Institute and for your support during this transition process. We wish you success in your future studies.

Sincerely,

Harvey J. Langholtz, Ph.D.,
Executive Director
Peace Operations Training Institute
